

ACCEPTABLE USE POLICY

90-Day Faith-Based Matchmaking Experience

THE DATING BOX COMPANY, LLC

1. Purpose and Scope

This Acceptable Use Policy (“Policy”) explains the behavior expected of every person applying for or participating in The Dating Box Company, LLC’s (“Company”) 90-Day Faith-Based Matchmaking Experience (“Service”). It is intended to support a respectful, honest, and safety-conscious environment for adults pursuing intentional relationships.

This Policy supplements, and does not replace, the Client Agreement, Terms and Conditions, privacy notice, or any other applicable written terms. If a provision conflicts with applicable law, the law controls. Have counsel determine how conflicts between this Policy and the Client Agreement should be handled.

2. Adults Only — Minimum Age 18

The Service is strictly limited to individuals aged 18 or older. Anyone under 18 may not apply, enroll, participate, use Service features, or be introduced as a potential match. Clients must provide accurate age and identity information and cooperate with reasonable verification steps. The Company may refuse or suspend participation if age or identity cannot be reasonably verified.

Do not attempt to involve a minor in the Service, arrange an adult-minor romantic or sexual interaction through the Service, request sexual images or content from a minor, or use the Service to contact, groom, exploit, or recruit a minor.

3. Respect, Consent, and Boundaries

All participants must communicate respectfully and honor personal boundaries. Consent must be freely given and can be withdrawn at any time. A participant’s decision to decline an introduction, stop communicating, or end a relationship must be respected.

- No harassment, bullying, intimidation, threats, stalking, repeated unwanted contact, coercion, or retaliation.
- No pressure for dates, physical intimacy, sexual activity, personal disclosures, or continued communication.
- No abusive, degrading, or discriminatory conduct, or behavior that creates a credible safety risk.
- No attempts to evade another person’s block, refusal, or request for no contact.

4. Honesty and Identity

Participants must provide truthful, current, and complete information about their identity, age, relationship status, intentions, and other material information requested for matchmaking. The following are prohibited:

- Impersonating another person or using false or misleading identity information.
- Knowingly misrepresenting relationship status, intentions, or other material facts.
- Submitting false documents or attempting to bypass age or identity verification.

- Using the Service for unlawful purposes or to deceive, defraud, or manipulate another participant.

5. Prohibition on Exploitation, Trafficking, and Financial Abuse

The Company has zero tolerance for using the Service to facilitate or conceal human trafficking, sexual exploitation, grooming, forced labor, coercive control, or other exploitation. Prohibited conduct includes:

- Recruiting, transporting, harboring, controlling, exploiting, or profiting from another person through force, fraud, coercion, or other unlawful means.
- Pressuring or deceiving a participant into providing money, loans, gifts, banking details, identity documents, or other financial benefits.
- Using threats, blackmail, intimate images, immigration status, employment, housing, or personal vulnerabilities to control or exploit someone.
- Soliciting or sharing sexual images or content involving a minor.

Participants should be cautious about sending money or financial information to someone they have met through the Service. Report suspected scams or exploitation to the Company promptly.

6. Privacy and Confidentiality

Participants must respect the privacy of others. Do not share or publish another participant's contact details, profile, photographs, personal story, messages, or feedback without permission, unless disclosure is reasonably necessary to report a safety concern or is otherwise required or protected by law.

Use contact information received through the Service only for respectful, consensual communication related to an introduction. Do not record, photograph, screenshot, repost, or distribute private interactions without permission, except as reasonably necessary to document or report a safety concern or comply with law. The Company cannot control information that another participant independently shares.

7. Personal Safety

Participants are responsible for their own decisions and personal safety. The Company encourages participants to consider the following precautions:

- Meet for initial dates in a public place.
- Arrange independent transportation and avoid sharing a home address until comfortable.
- Tell a trusted person where you are going and how to reach you.
- Keep control of personal belongings, drinks, devices, and financial information.
- Leave or seek help if you feel unsafe, pressured, or uncomfortable.

The Company does not guarantee the conduct, identity, intentions, or safety of any participant and is not an emergency response service.

8. Reporting Safety Concerns

Report suspected violations, threats, harassment, stalking, fraud, exploitation, trafficking, or other safety concerns to tdboxcompanyllc@gmail.com. Include relevant details when safe to do so. Do not put yourself at risk to collect evidence or confront the person involved.

If someone is in immediate danger, call 911. For suspected human trafficking in the United States, the National Human Trafficking Hotline has been listed as 1-888-373-7888 or text 233733 (BEFREE); verify current contact information before relying on or publishing it.

The Company will assess reports within its reasonable ability and may take steps to protect participants. It cannot promise absolute confidentiality and may share information when reasonably necessary to address a serious safety concern or as required or permitted by law.

9. Enforcement

Depending on the nature and seriousness of a concern, the Company may decline an introduction, restrict communication, pause participation, suspend or terminate Service access, preserve relevant records, or contact emergency services or appropriate authorities when reasonably warranted. The Company will consider available information and applicable law. The Company is not required to continue a service relationship where it reasonably believes doing so may create a safety risk.

Any fees, cancellations, or refunds resulting from suspension or termination are governed by the Client Agreement and applicable law. This Policy does not create a promise that every report will result in a particular action or outcome.

10. Faith-Centered Expectations

The Service is informed by Christian faith and biblical principles, including honesty, respect, care, and intentionality. Participants are expected to engage with sincerity and treat others with dignity. The Company does not guarantee that a participant shares every belief or will act consistently with stated values.

11. Acknowledgment

By signing below, I confirm that I am at least 18 years old, have read and understood this Acceptable Use Policy, agree to follow it while applying for or participating in the Service, and understand that violations may lead to refusal, suspension, or termination of participation, subject to the Client Agreement and applicable law.

Client full legal name: _____

Client signature: _____ Date: _____

Company representative: _____ Date: _____